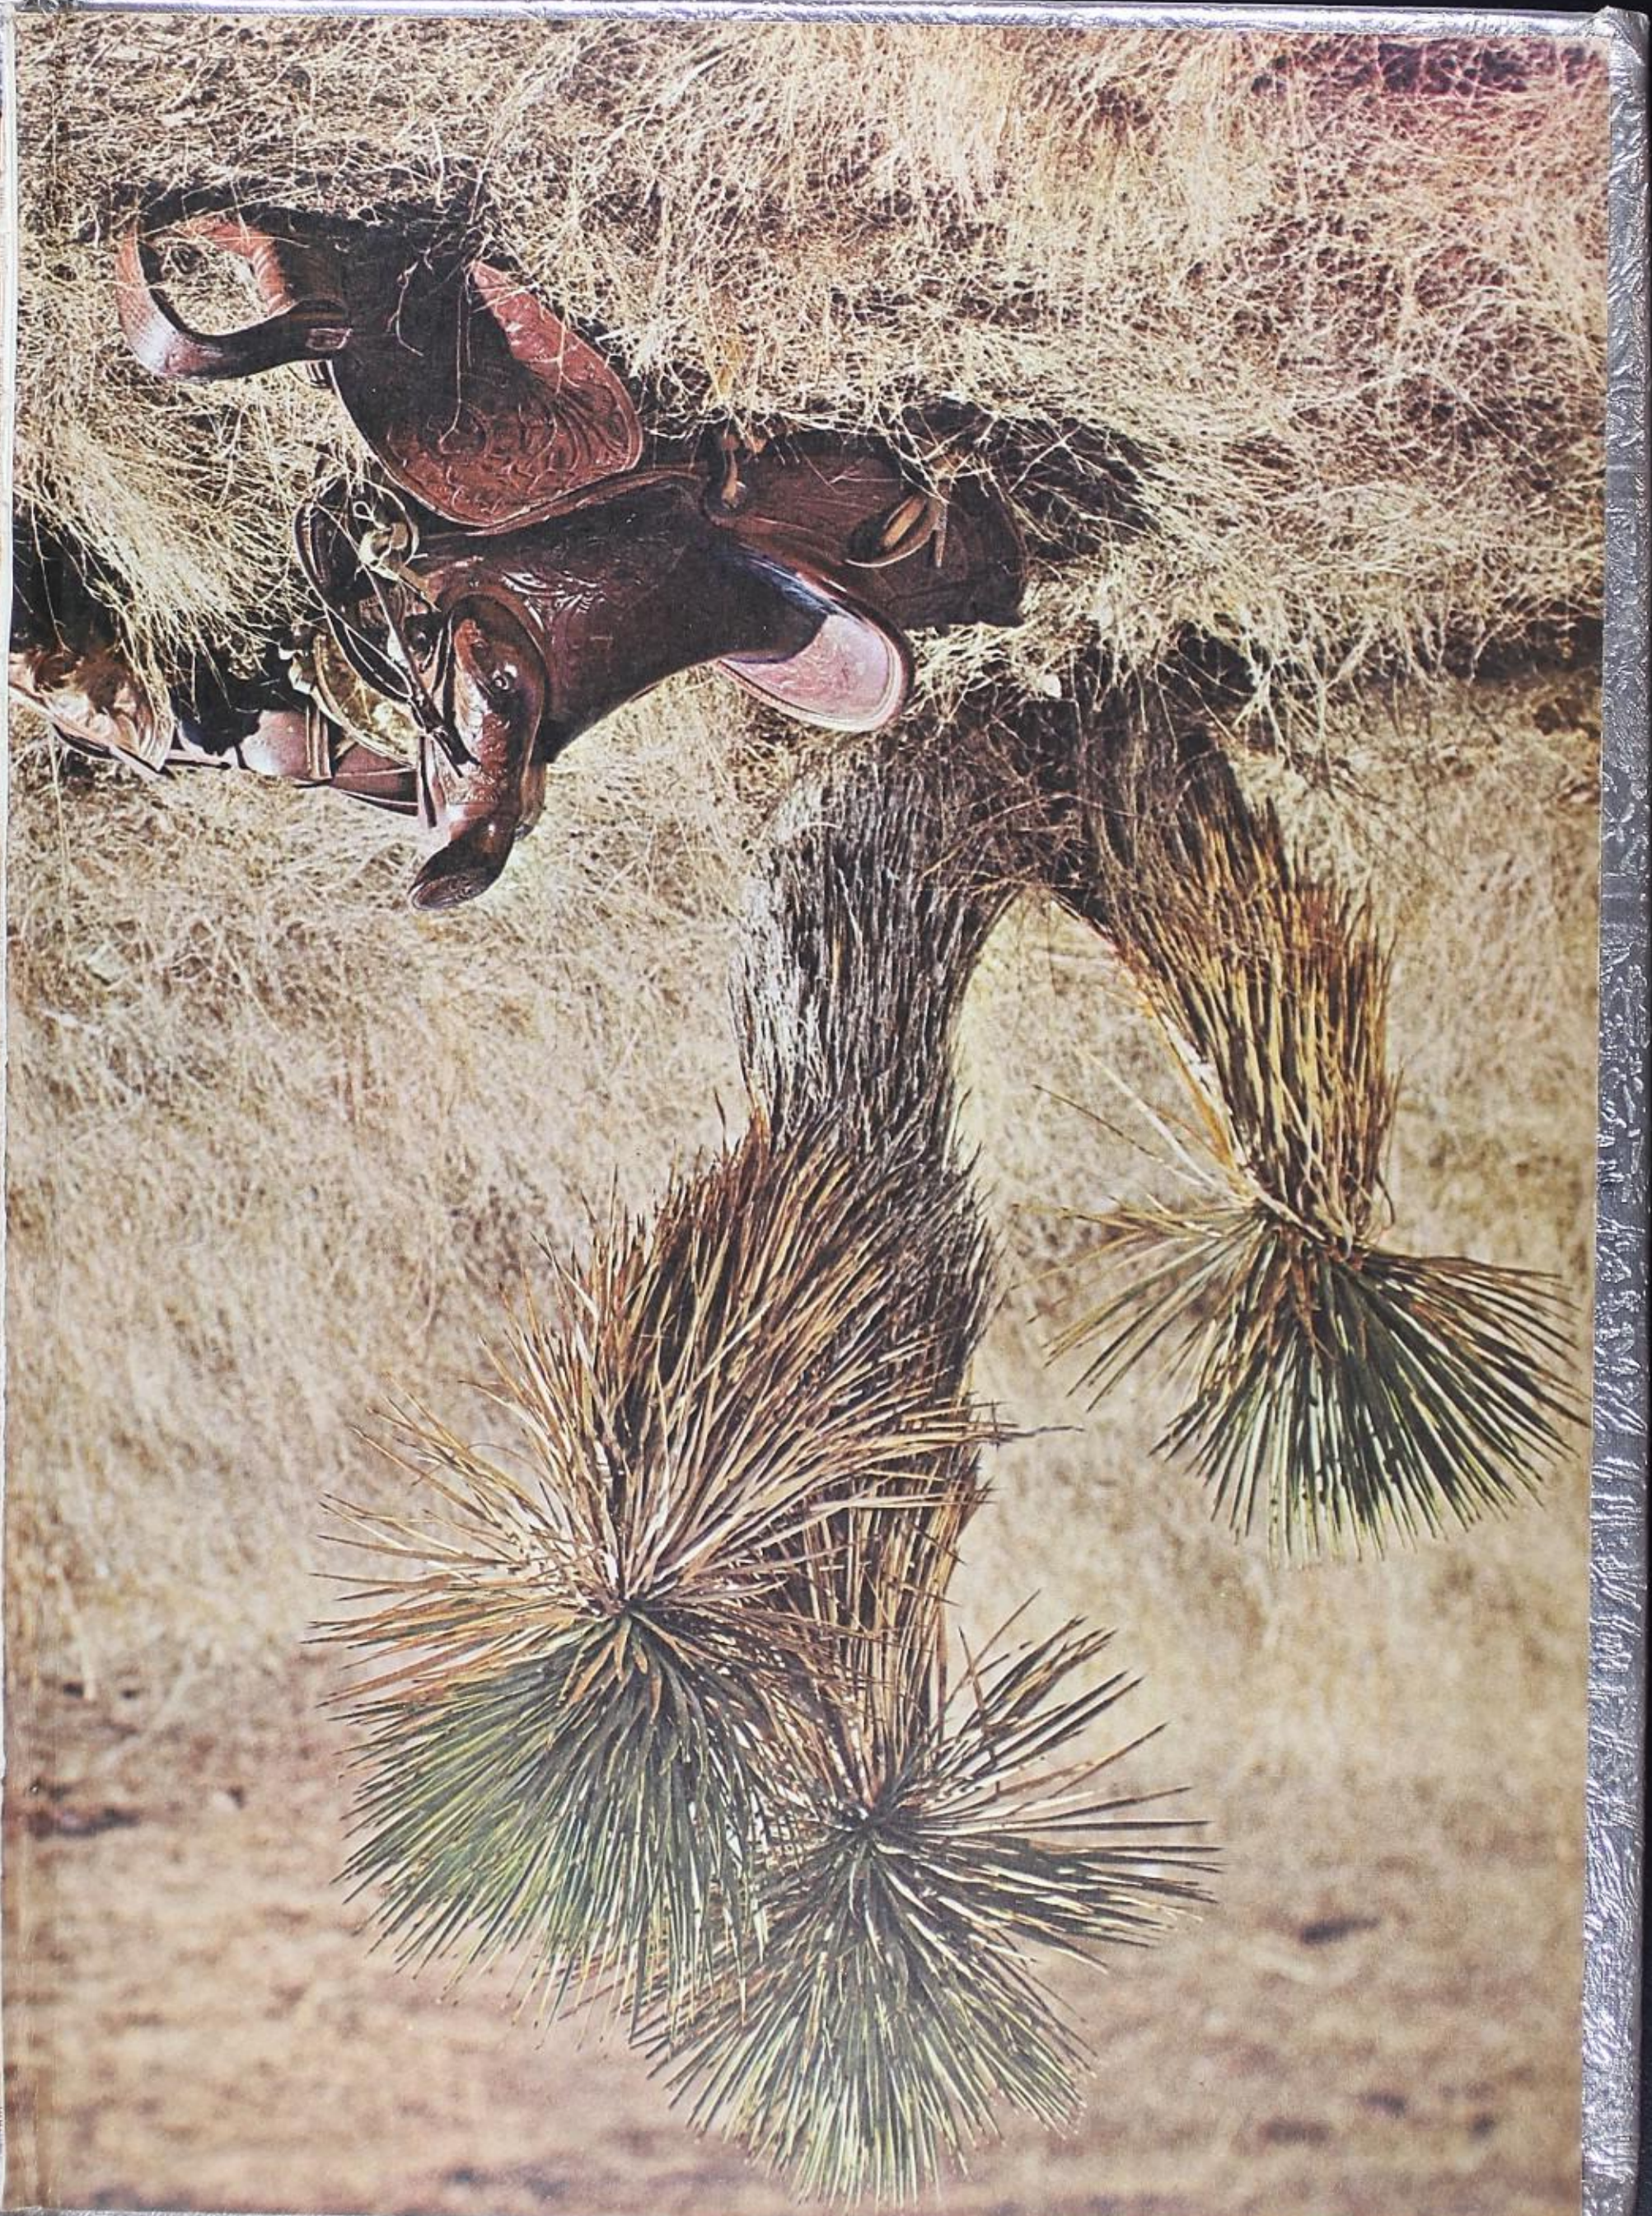
THE EAGLE



Elizabeth Perdue

To a sweet and nice girl. May
the best be yours
always.

Susan

To a new
sweet + cute girl.
I've enjoyed having
you around.

Pamela

Elizabeth,

If all students were as sweet and nice as you are in the classroom, teaching would be so easy and wonderful.
May you have as much happiness as you have given me, is my wish for you.

Mrs. Buzbee

To a real sweet girl who
I know will go
far. I have enjoyed having you for a
classmate these years.
Best of Luck.

Love ya,
Leida

BILLY WATSON

TO BILLY

As I sit at my desk
And silently stare
I see there before me
A lone empty chair

Where once sat a boy
With a smile on his face
It seems to us now
No one takes his place

His eyes always shown
On his face not a frown
With just enough teasing
To please those around

Not once did I scold him
That he failed just to grin
To be mean or resentful
Just wasn't in him

A handsome young man
His life just begun
We can't understand
Such a short race was run

His classmates all loved him
So willing to do
Anything that was asked him
Oh, how the time flew

To lose such a young life
We can't understand
I'm sure he'd have been
Such a wonderful man

But this world is a stage
Where each plays his part
This boy's role was over
A new one to start

I'm glad to have shared
A small part of his life
To me he brought happiness
In a world filled with strife

There'll be many students
To pass through these halls
But there's one thing, Billy
You were loved by us all

And as the years pass
And time heals our hearts
May we as actors
Like you play our parts

May we use some of your smiles
To cover our tears
For we know you are happy
All gone are your fears

And as you look down
On us from above
May we all inherit
Just a part of your love

Lois Higgins McEwin

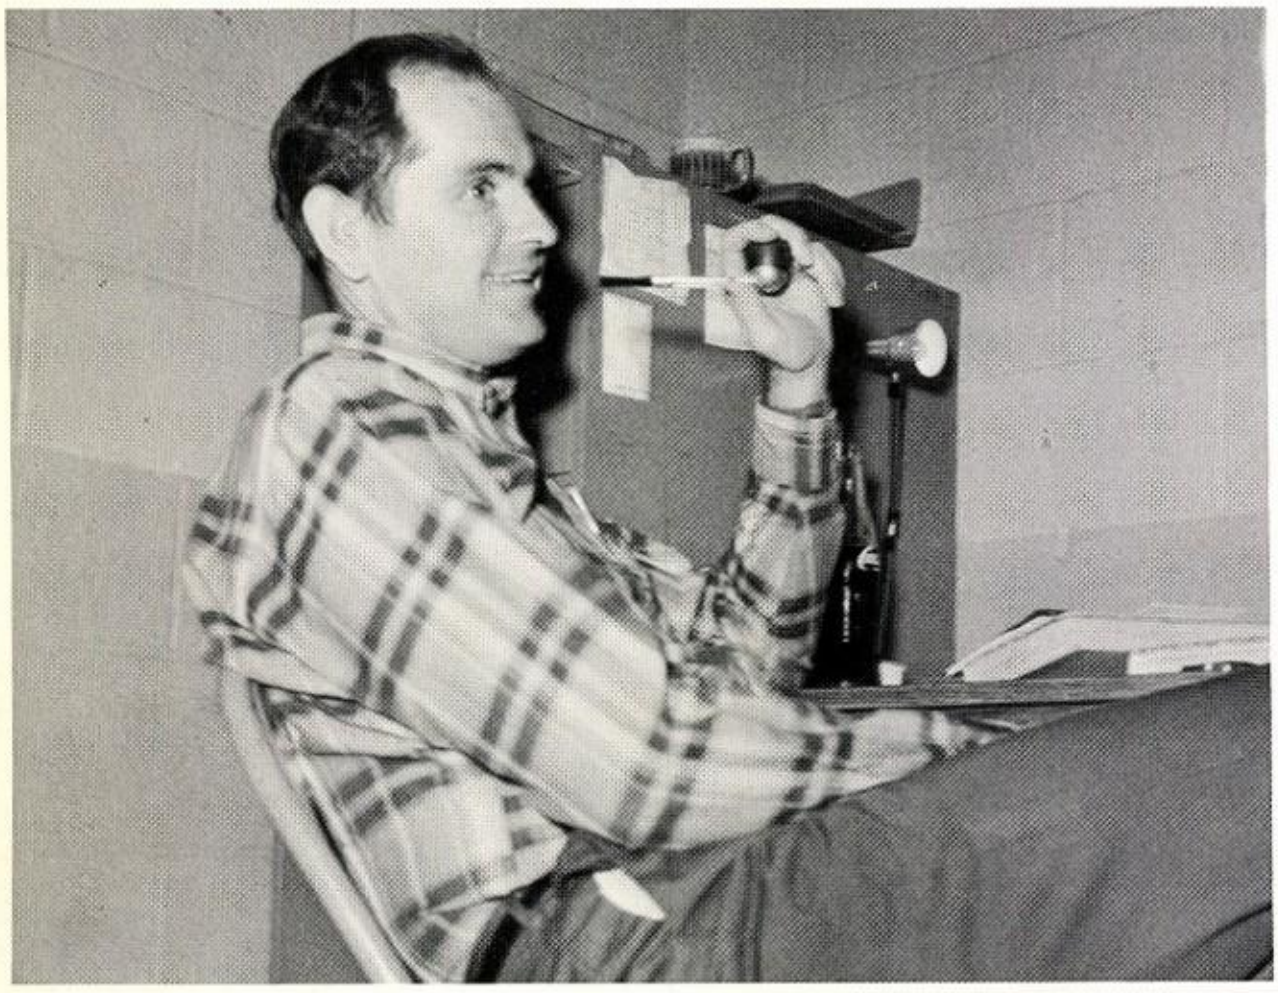
Dedicated to You.



Whenever the going gets rough it is nice to know that someone will understand. Whatever we do, we will never forget you. You have filled many roles: principal, teacher, friend. This is but a small token of our appreciation. To you - Mr. Seneca Cowan.

In Appreciation

To the Administration

We dedicate this page to you who have dedicated so much of your lives in service of those around you.

Positions of responsibility are always lonely ones. We appreciate the courage with which you have faced the important decisions you must make daily.

It is our prayer that we, the students of Detroit School, will always give you our loyal support in order to make ours a better school.

While you were studying for graduation...
We were doing a little homework, too.

Now that graduation is here, you'll be faced with important decisions. You'll decide on continuing your education. You'll choose a profession, a direction in life.

And while you're planning for your future, so are we. You'll require more electricity in your home and in your work, as will our many other customers in this growing area. We're planning and building ahead so electricity will continue to serve you faithfully at the flip of a switch.
Congratulations, and good luck for the future.
